

Appendix for “Power outages and community health: a narrative review”

eFigure 1: Geographic distribution of epidemiologic studies conducted on power outages and health between 2004-2020. Thirty-six studies occurred in the United States, five in Japan, three in Canada, two in Tanzania, and one in all other locations.

